

Garth Pecchenino – is a licensed Agricultural Engineer, Civil Engineer and Land surveyor operating a private consulting firm in Merced area for the last 30 plus years and for the last 20 years been involved in growing pistachios and almonds. Currently Mr. Pecchenino is the Chairman of the Industrial Advisory Committee for the Bio Resources Agricultural Engineering Department at Cal Poly San Luis Obispo. Serves on the local Hospital Board and other charitable organizations in the community. Mr. Pecchenino is looking to provide assistance to the review of important laws or regulations that can effect the pistachio industry and impact to the grower.