

Adam Kusmak has grown pistachios with his family since 1990 in New Mexico (NM). He attained BS and Master's degrees at New Mexico State University in Agriculture Economics and Business. He is a board member of the Arizona Pistachio Association. Adam graduated from the 2011 American Pistachio Growers (APG) Leadership Program and was elected to the APG Board in 2012. He is also a current member of the APG Government Policies and Partnerships Committee. Additionally, Adam is an active partner in the NM agriculture industry, representing many key issues, growth opportunities and supporting efficient production throughout the agriculture industry.