

Majic Khabbaz - Entrepreneur

As senior corporate executive for many years of experience in all areas of business including merger/acquisition, operation, international sales & marketing, business development, and strategic planning, Majic is the perfect candidate to help to improve the industry

Majic has achieved strong relationship with clients worldwide by earning their trust and confidence. Known as one of the top dynamic business operators, strategic planners, highly accountable, collaborative and empowering leader with high integrity. Proven records in developing and executing major transactions. Majic's entrepreneurial background enables him to assist clients to achieve best results

Majic has an extraordinary ability to lead by motivation and by creating lasting business relationships from a whole different and unique paradigms. His experience spans across agriculture, real estate, hospitality, marketing, customer relationships, sales and business development. Majic's valuable leadership experience across many industries is a much valued asset

As a "Paul Harris" fellow recognition Rotarian and a board member of Health Care Foundation for Venture County Majic has been dedicated to giving back to the society by not only helping nonprofit organizations but also volunteering in business education programs in mentoring young adults.

Thank you for the opportunity to be of service