

William Gleason

“My experience in the pistachio industry started as a young teenager cutting suckers off of PG1 rootstock with a labor crew during summer vacation. I attended the University of Colorado at Boulder, received my CPA, and am now the CFO of a pistachio farming operation headquartered in Coalinga.”